

Supplement to Requests for Deferment or Forbearance

Dear Borrower:

If you are unable to remit the amount needed to bring your student loan account(s) current or pay the regular amounts due on your account(s), you may apply for deferment (no payments due for a specified period) or forbearance (reduced payments for a specified period). If you would like to be considered for either of these options, please complete the information below, as well as the attached deferment/forbearance form, and return both completed documents to the address noted at the bottom of this form. The type of benefit granted will depend on your financial situation. Any loan(s) may continue to be reported to the national credit reporting agencies according to their current status.

1. I am applying for deferment or forbearance. I am not able to pay the amount required on my loan for the following reasons:
